VIII. Course Requirements:

Class participation based on readings and other assignments:

Assigned readings from these books should be read prior to the class session in which they will be discussed. Students are expected to participate in class discussions. Contributions may also include outside readings and/or personal experience.

IX. Grading Scale:

A	=	100-90
B	=	89-80
C	=	79-70
D	=	69-60
F	=	below 60

X. Academic Honesty:

Academic honesty involves acts, which subvert or compromise the integrity of the educational process at the University of Arkansas. Included is an act by which a student gains or attempts to gain an academic advantage for himself or herself or another by misrepresenting his or her or another's work or by interfering with the completion, submission, or evaluation of work.

The application of the University of Arkansas Academic Honesty Policy, as stated on in the 2011-2012 Graduate Studies Catalog, will be fully adhered to in this course. Grades and degrees earned by dishonest means devalue those earned by all students; therefore, it is important that students are aware of the University of Arkansas Academic Honesty Policy. Academic dishonesty involves acts, which may subvert or compromise the integrity of the educational process.

XI. Inclement Weather Procedure:

If Fayetteville schools are closed due to inclement weather, we will not have class.

XII. Attendance Policy and Late Work Policy:

Attendance—you have to be present to win! Attendance is mandatory.

All assignments are due in class on the due date unless otherwise required.

Failure to meet this requirement results in a zero for that assignment unless previous arrangements have been made with me. No late work is accepted (you can arrange to turn assignments in early).

 Incompletes will not be given this semester due to departmental recommendations.

XIII. Accommodations:

The department of Student Support Services is designed to provide a powerful combination of programs and services to students who are first generation, and/or modest-income, and/or individuals with disabilities. The services provided by Student Support Services place an emphasis on individual assessment, counseling, advising, and skill building. Some of these services include: academic/financial/personal counseling, financial scholarships, social etiquette instruction, career and graduate school preparation, academic/cultural enrichment, assistance with tutoring, and mentorship. The overarching goal of the University of Arkansas Student Support Services program is to empower students, assist them in achieving academic excellence, and seeing them through to graduation.

Student Support Services is a department in the Office of Diversity. The office is located on the Garden Level of Gregson Hall. For more details, call Student Support Services at 479-575-3546 or visit the Web site at <http://www.uark.edu/sss/>. (2010-2011, Graduate Catalogue, p. 204).
