

E-flection Assignment
 CIED 5253
 Bowles

Goal: To connect the internship experience to the CIED Scholar-Practitioner Tenets

Objective: IWBT demonstrate understanding of the Tenets and evaluation of the internship by writing a reflection for each tenet based on daily classroom practices and observations during each rotation.

Rubric for E-flections

Unacceptable 6 and below	Acceptable 7-8	Target 9-10 pts
E-flection has little detail or description. The writing is vague with no connections to the tenet. Excessive errors interfere with meaning. The assignment may also be late.	E-flection has some detail and description with limited thoughtfulness. It has one connection to either the internship or class. Some errors are made and usage may be conversational. The assignment is submitted by the due date.	E-flection is thoughtful, detailed, and descriptive. It clearly connects to the tenet with at least one example each from both the internship and classes. It is well-edited with no errors and meets the expectations of academic language usage. The assignment is submitted by the due date.